* program and class costs subject to change

Additional costs purchased individually by each student: textbooks, massage table, sheets, oil, two professional massages = between $350 and $700

Each student must pay a $3 enrollment fee. All fees are included in course and program deposits. Students in the 500-hour Professional Massage Therapy program are subject to an additional fee of $12 for state reporting. Fees cover dues required quarterly by the school to the Colorado Division of Private and Occupational Schools.

Payment Plans are available. Lotus Education Institute has an agreement with Alpine Bank, which offers secured student loans. Please contact us for more information.

Educational Services

Tutoring and make-up work is available at a cost determined by the director.

Class Schedule

Hands On Courses: Refer to our website for current class schedules.

Online Courses: See individual courses for weekly due dates. Study during the week at your convenience. Online courses are not self-paced.

When an unexpected closure occurs due to extraordinary conditions such as inclement weather, phone and/or radio, and/or TV who provide closure information as a public service will notify students as soon as possible. Classes are not held on the following holidays: New Year's Eve, New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day & the Friday following, Christmas Eve, and Christmas Day.

Entrance Requirements

The school does not discriminate based on race, sex, religion, ethnic origin, or disability.

Prospective students must have a high school diploma or equivalent to be accepted for enrollment. If applicants are beyond the age of compulsory school attendance in Colorado and do not possess a diploma or equivalent diploma, they may complete an ability to benefit test. The school does not administer the test, but will provide information on availability when requested. Students also concurrently enrolled in General Education Diploma (GED) courses will be accepted for enrollment.

Students with many forms of disabilities perform massage therapy proficiently. Students must testify to being health physically and mentally as required to perform professional massage therapy. Students who fail to disclose disabilities prohibiting their ability to learn and perform massage therapy are subject to dismissal.

Students will be asked to undergo a background check similar to the requirements for state licensure.

Enrollment

Prospective students may enroll anytime at the start of each program. Online students can enroll up to day 3 of the first week of any course. After day 3, no enrollments will be accepted.

Postponement of Start Date

Postponement of a starting date, whether at the request of the school or the student, requires a written agreement signed by the student and the school. The agreement must set forth:

- a. Whether the postponement is for the convenience of the school or the student, and;
- b. A deadline for the new start date, beyond which the start date will not be postponed.

If the course is not commenced, or the student fails to attend by the new start date set forth in the agreement, the student will be entitled to an appropriate refund of prepaid tuition and fees within 30 days of the deadline of the new start date set forth in the agreement, determined in accordance with the school's refund policy and all applicable laws and rules concerning the Private Occupational Education Act of 1981.

Placement Assistance

Lotus Health Education offers employment assistance to graduates, consisting of job lead referrals and job skills development. While assisting in your job search, we make no guarantee, expressed or implied, of future employment. Current law prohibits any school from guaranteeing job placement as an inducement to enroll students.

Attendance Requirements

Students are expected to arrive on time for class with proper materials. An overall attendance rate of at least 85% is required. Instructors may request your withdrawal from a course or program if absences or tardiness exceed 70%.

Students who are unable to continue classes for medical reasons or severe personal problems will be required to take a leave of absence until they are able to return to class. Proper documentation will be required to substantiate a student's withdrawal.

Progress Policy

Students must maintain a 75% grade point average. Those who do not will be placed on probation for 30 days. During the probation period students must raise their grade average to passing or higher. The student may be terminated if grades are not satisfactory at the end of the probationary period.

Students enrolled in the 500 hour Professional Massage Therapy program have one year to complete all courses. After one year, upon consideration of circumstances, students may be required to exit the program, retake courses, and/or pay additional fees for program extensions.

Disenrollment or extension shall be at the school Director's discretion. The Director has final authority and shall notify the student of the final decision.

Grading System

90-100 = A	Excellent
80-89 = B	Above Average
70-79 = C	Average
60-69 = D	Below Average

Under 59 = F Unsatisfactory

Every six weeks, progress reports with grades will be issued to students throughout the program. Students enrolled in short-term courses will be issued grades at course end.

Conduct Policy

All students are expected to act maturely and are required to respect other students and faculty members. Possession or use of weapons, illegal drugs, and alcohol of any kind are not allowed at any time on school property. Any violation of school policies may result in permanent dismissal from school. Students are expected to follow the same ethical code of conduct as prescribed by the National Certification Board of Bodywork and Massage Therapy.

Dismissal

Any student may be dismissed for violations of rules and regulations of the school, as set forth in school publications. A student may be withdrawn from classes if he or she does not prepare sufficiently, neglects assignments, or makes unsatisfactory progress. The director, after consultation with all parties involved, makes the final decision.

The Director of Education may temporarily suspend students whose conduct is disruptive or unacceptable to the academic setting. After appropriate counseling, students who demonstrate a genuine desire to learn and conform to school standards of conduct, may be allowed to resume attendance. The director will review each case and decide upon re-admittance.

Plagiarism as determined by the director is also grounds for immediate and permanent dismissal.

Facilities

We have a large classroom with adjacent kitchen and relaxation areas for students. There are two restrooms, free parking, and close access to public transportation and river bike paths that run through Glenwood Springs.

Online Learning

Please utilize YouTube videos that tell guide students, such as <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RDaMD0T4R-g>

Right technology:

Canvas requires an updated Internet browser, Firefox and Safari are recommended. Make sure to try out the software and links before your classes begin. Troubleshoot any problems using the Canvas Help tab or YouTube channel. Make sure all plug-ins, microphones, and audio functions work well.

Previous Credits

Credits from another institution will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. The Lotus Heath Education School does not guarantee transferability of our credits to another institution unless there is a written agreement with another institution.

Student Grievance Procedure

Students with grievances must first contact individual instructors and attempt to work out an amicable solution. If a solution cannot be reached between instructors and students, students may contact the school grievance representative, currently Christine Liebe.

Student Complaints

Attempting to resolve any issue with the School first is strongly encouraged. Student Complaints may be brought to the attention of the Division of Private Occupational Schools online at <http://highered.colorado.gov/dpos> , 303-862-3001. There is a two-year statute of limitations for the Division to take action on a student complaint (from student's late date of attendance).

Refund Policy

Students not accepted to the school are entitled to all moneys paid. Students who cancel this contract by notifying the school within three (3) business days are entitled to a full refund of all tuition and fees paid. Students who withdraw after three (3) business days, but before commencement of classes, are entitled to a full refund of all tuition and fees paid except the maximum cancellation charge of $150.00 or 25% of the contract price which ever is less. In the case of students withdrawing after commencement of classes, the school will retain the cancellation charge plus a percentage of tuition and fees, which is based on the percentage of contact hours scheduled as described in the table below. The refund is based on the official date of termination or withdrawal.

Refund Table

Student is entitled to upon withdrawal/termination*	Refund
Within first 10% of program	90% less cancellation charge
After 10% but within first 25% of program	75% less cancellation charge
After 25% but within first 50% of program	50% less cancellation charge
After 50% but within first 75% of program	25% less cancellation charge
After 75% [if paid in full, cancellation charge is not applicable]	NO Refund

1. The student may cancel this contract at any time prior to midnight of the third business day after signing this contract.
2. All refunds will be made within 30 days from the date of termination. The official date of termination or withdrawal of a student shall be determined in the following manner:
 - a. The date on which the school receives notice of the student's intention to discontinue the training program; or
 - b. The date on which the student violates published school policy, which provides for termination.

- c. Should a student fail to return from an excused leave of absence, the effective date of termination for a student on an extended leave of absence or a leave of absence is the earlier of the date the school determines the student is not returning or the day following the expected return date.
- 3. The student will receive a full refund of tuition & fees paid if the school discontinues a Program/Stand Alone course within a period of time a student could have reasonably completed it, except that this provision shall not apply in the event the school ceases operation.
- 4. The policy for granting credit for previous training shall not impact the refund policy.
